Private Accessible Panoramic Paris Experience:

Start your accessible Paris vacation with a wonderful panoramic driving tour throughout the city! Escorted by your private Paris tour guide, you'll start this tour from your hotel and make your way to some of the best highlights of the city; see the spectacular gothic Notre Dame Cathedral, the distinguished mausoleum the Pantheon, the absolute must see Eiffel Tower, and the famous Opera Garnier, the setting of Gaston Leroux's novel The Phantom of the Opera. You'll also pass by the Arc de Triomphe and Place de la Concorde. Your private accessible driving tour of Paris is packed with amazing photo opportunities and sights – three hours will fly by! It gives you a perfect overview of the city in a relaxing and convenient way, the day after long travel.

Accessible Seine Dinner Cruise Experience:

What's better than a moonlit dinner in Paris beneath the flow of the Eiffel Tower? Enjoy Paris from a unique perspective; Paris at night from the Seine River! Your accessible van and driver will pick you up from your accessible Paris hotel lobby, and escort you to the designated cruise dock for boarding of your dinner cruise. As your vessel embarks on the journey, enjoy an authentic three-course French cuisine, complete with wine and a live band playing classic French songs. See all the major Parisian landmarks, illuminated against the night sky, such as the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, Louvre Museum and many more! Once your accessible dinner boat tour of Paris is over and you disembark, your driver and wheelchair accessible van will meet you at the dock and return you to your accessible Paris hotel.

Accessible Parisian Food Tasting Experience: This experience is the "icing on the cake" on your accessible Paris vacation! Explore the heart of good food, the so-called "belly of Paris" Monorgueil, and enjoy lively commentary and recommendations by your native Parisian guide as you sample your way through this great tour. Explore the historic food market street which resembles something from a picture or movie; butchers, bakers, fresh fish, cheese mongers, Oyster stands, and specialty stores are peppered throughout the area. You'll also visit the bakery that started the "baguette revolution" in 1996, and sample different kinds of cheese, creamy coffee, delicious French pastry, wine and soft drinks.
